And if she deign thy Notes to hear,
And if she praise thy matin song,
Tell her the sounds that soothe her Ear,
To Damon's native Plains belong.

(3)

Tell her in livelier plumes array'd,
The Bird from Indian Groves may shine,
But ask the lovely partial Maid,
What are his Notes compar'd to thine.

(4)

Then bid her treat yon witless beau,
And all his flaunting race with scorn,
And lend an ear to Damons woe,
Who sings her praise, and sings forlorn.
